Wed. December 13 @ 1:30 p.m.

“Christmas Past in Waterloo”

Get in the holiday mood as Jennifer from the Museum shares this festive presentation about Christmas traditions. We will explore where some of our favorite holiday activities come from and how they have changed over the years. In addition, the presentation will look at some of Waterloo’s favourite winter traditions.

Wed. December 20 @ 1:30 p.m.

Festive Music
With Rick Chambers

Grab a cup of tea and join us for some beautiful holiday songs with our favourite pianist. This will be a lovely way to relax before we head into the hustle and bustle of the season.

Wed. December 27 @1:30 p.m.

No Program Scheduled

About the program
WOW Waterloo is open to all older adults residing in Waterloo. To promote a welcoming and safe setting for all, we ask that participants observe our Respectful Conduct guidelines.

- To participate in a kind and respectful manner
- To create an inclusive environment that honours people of all cultures, traditions, faiths, genders, sexual orientation, abilities, and life experiences
- To respect all group members and their opinions, even if they differ from your own
- To allow the facilitator, volunteer or guest speaker to lead the conversation or activity
- To allow everyone a chance to speak and participate by not dominating conversations
- To maintain confidentiality – information that is shared on the call by others should be kept private and confidential.
